Read the following paragraph then answer the following questions:

Sheikh Sulaiman bin Abdul-Aziz Al-Rajhi, the world-renowned philanthropist and winner of the 2012 King Faisal International Prize for Service to Islam, has not always been a billionaire. Born in 1929, he spent his youth in Al-Qassim where he and his brother Saleh began their business, changing money for pilgrims, on their way to the cities of Makkah and Madinah. Their business expanded in the 1970s during the oil boom in Saudi Arabia. The Al-Rajhi brothers helped migrant workers from Indonesia, Pakistan and other places to send their earnings home. They were granted permission to establish a bank, the Al Rajhi Bank, which complied with religious tenets such as a ban on interest.

Anthony jumped off the school bus and raced through the front door, leaving his jacket, shoes and backpack in a trail behind him. " Mom, Mom " he called. Guess what we studied in school today? Anthony's mom had been cutting celery to go with some peanut butter for his afternoon snack. Smiling at his excitement, she stopped what she was doing and asked: What did you study? We learned all about Canada today. " Anthony answered ". That's where are you from, right? His mom nodded her head. Tell me what you learned. Well. " Anthony started as he sat down on a chair at the counter " We learned that Canada has almost 34 million people. We learned that there are two official languages: English and French " Oui! " Said his mother with a smile. We learned that lots of neat things come from Canada. like what? " Mom asked ". My teacher says that Canada produces tons of wheat and fish, like Salmon. He also said that a lot of movies and some T.V shows are filmed up in Canada. He says that many celebrities like actors and singers come from Canada too. His mom was smiling again as she put Anthony's snack in front of him. My teacher asked who we thought was the most important and influential person who came from Canada." Oh, and who would that be? " His mom asked, sitting down on the chair beside him." I told him it was you, Mom " Anthony said with big grin as he bit into the celery.
