Job Stress

In recent years, job stress has become a growing problem. In the U.S., three out of every four people say that their job is stressful. And the United Nations' International Labor Organization has said that work stress has become a global issue. What has caused work to become so stressful in the last 20 years? One reason that jobs have become more stressful is technology. Computer technology is changing quickly. This means that people constantly have to learn new ways to do their work. Another reason that jobs have become more stressful is that people work more now than they did in the past. They take fewer vacations and work more hours per week. Stress is bad for your health. It can cause physical problems, like a heart attack, or mental problems, like depression. So, what can you do to avoid job stress? You should talk to your boss when you feel that you have too much work to handle. And, you should make sure that you have enough time in your schedule for relaxing, fun activities that are not related to work.

1. Job stress is only a problem in the United States. (F)
2. Changing technology is a cause of job stress. (T)

The Make-A-Wish Foundation

One of the world's most well-known charities is the Make-A-Wish Foundation. This charity grants wishes to children who are very sick. The Make-A-Wish Foundation granted its first wish in 1980 to a seven-year-old boy named Christopher, who was sick with cancer. Christopher wanted to be a police officer. The charity made Christopher's wish come true. He was given a uniform and badge and a helicopter ride. This made the young boy very happy. Since then, the Make-A-Wish Foundation has granted over 240,000 wishes to children all over the world. Some children wish to meet famous people, to go to exciting places, and to learn new things. The following are some examples of wishes that children have made.

"I wish to be James Bond".

"I wish to learn to take care of a horse".

"I wish to swim with a dolphin".

"I wish to go to the mountains.
