II. Reading Comprehension

/ 6

Read the following text, and then answer the questions below:

Off the coast of Florida lies a story of lost treasure that captivates the imagination and has fueled treasure hunting dreams for decades. It begins in 1715, when a Spanish fleet of 11 galleons laden with treasures from the New World, including gold, silver, and precious gems, set sail for Spain. However, a hurricane struck the fleet near Vero Beach, causing the ships to sink and scattering their riches along the ocean floor.

For years, the treasure lay hidden, claimed by the sea. Then, in 2015, a family of treasure hunters, the Schmitts, made an astonishing discovery. While diving off the coast, they stumbled upon a trove of gold coins and artifacts from the sunken fleet. The find was worth millions of dollars and included over 50 gold coins and a gold ring encrusted with emeralds.

The discovery sparked a renewed interest in the lost treasure, leading to further expeditions and discoveries. In 2016, another group of treasure hunters found a 300-year-old gold chain. The excitement surrounding these finds continues to attract treasure hunters from around the world, all hoping to uncover a piece of history and perhaps strike it rich.

The story of the lost and found treasure of the Spanish galleon serves as a reminder of the enduring allure of lost treasure and the thrill of discovery. Time and time again, it has been shown that the bond between a person and his horse is incredibly strong. This has been proved by the countless stories about horses that have saved their owners' lives. This past weekend in Canada, once again a boy owes his life to his horse. Alan is a twelve-year-old boy who lives with his family, in the country. Alan was out with his horse, "Hero" when it started getting dark. The horse seemed alert and moved cautiously.
